

Pony Club Association of Queensland Inc.

CODES OF BEHAVIOUR

Riders

1. Play by the rules.
2. Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain, coach or manager approach the official at a suitable time.
3. Control your temper. Verbal abuse of official and sledging other players, deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not acceptable or permitted behaviors in any sport.
4. Work equally hard for yourself and for your team. Your team's performance will benefit, so will you.
5. Be a good sport. Applaud all good performances whether by your team or the opposition.
6. Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor.
7. Co-operate with your instructor, teammates and opponents. Without them there would be no competition.
8. Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents and instructors.
9. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Parents

1. Remember that children participate in sport for their enjoyment, as well as yours.
2. Encourage children to participate, do not force them.
3. Focus on the child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.
4. Encourage children always to play according to the rules and to settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence.
5. Never ridicule or yell at a child for making mistake or losing competition.
6. Remember that children learn best by example. Appreciate good performances and skills by all participants.
7. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities.
8. Show appreciation for instructors, officials and administrators. Without them, your child could not participate
9. Never abuse or belittle instructors, judges, stewards or administrators, especially in front of children or bystanders. If you have a legitimate complaint there are proper procedures to follow.
10. At all times teach and encourage a child to show good sportsmanship, especially in adversity. Again, remember that children learn best by example.
11. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background and religion.

Administrators

1. Involve young people in planning, leadership, evaluation and decision making related to the activity.
2. Give all young people equal opportunities-to participate.
3. Create pathways for young people to participate in sport not just as a player but also as a coach, referee, administrator etc..
4. Ensure that rules, equipment, length of games and training schedules are modified to suit the age, ability and maturity level of young riders.
5. Provide quality supervision and Instruction for junior riders.
6. Remember that young people participate for their enjoyment and benefit Do not overemphasize awards.
7. Help instructors and officials highlight appropriate behavior and skill development, and help improve the standards of instruction and officiating.
8. Ensure that everyone involved in junior sport emphasizes fair play, and not winning at all costs.
9. Give a code of behavior sheet to spectators, officials, parents, instructors, riders and the media and encourage them to follow it.
10. Remember you set an example. Your behavior and comments should be positive and supportive.
11. Support implementation of the National Junior Sport Policy.
12. Make it clear that abusing young people in any way is unacceptable and will result in disciplinary action
13. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.